Samarth Pagaria
25102C2008
CMPN-C.
EWEM.

24th July - 2026. Activity

(1) Lead (Pb)
- Highly toxic heavy mental that damages the brain, nervous system, kidneys and Blood, even at low levels.
- Long-term exposure can anemia, development disorders in children, high blood pressure and kidney disease.

(2) Chromium (Cr)
- Hexavalent chromium (Cr^{6+}) is highly toxic and a known human carcinogen, especially effecting the lungs.
- Prolonged exposure can cause lung cancer, respiratory disease, skin ulcers and kidney/liver damage

(3) Calcium (Cd)
- Calcium accumulates in the body over time mainly in kidneys
- Long term exposure can cause bone weakening (osteoporosis) lungs disease etc.

(4) Mercury (Hg).
- Mercury is a potent neurotoxin that damages the brain, kidney.
- Exposure can cause memory loss tremors, vision & hearing problems.

Sundaram
FOR EDUCATIONAL USE